

Ever dreamed of living, travelling and working abroad? Visa First can help you to do exactly that by offering a range of Working Holiday Visa packages for Australia, New Zealand and Canada.

Q. What do I need in order to travel on a working holiday?

The first and most important thing is your Working Holiday Visa.

In order to live, work and travel in Australia, Canada or New Zealand, you will need a valid visa.

Visa First can help you to secure your visa!

Four points backpackers should keep in mind...

Once your visa is approved, you have 12 months to enter either Australia, New Zealand or Canada. Your visa is only activated when you enter the country and it is valid for 1 year from your date of entry.

To be considered as eligible for a 2nd Australian Working Holiday Visa, you must complete 88 days of specified work while on your 1st Working Holiday Visa.

There is no 2nd New Zealand Working Holiday Visa. The New Zealand WHV is a once in a lifetime opportunity.

There is a yearly quota for Canadian Working Holiday Visas and the quotas fills up very quickly, so it is important to act fast once the application window opens!
